OUR READING CORRESPONDENCE.

Resolutions Adopted by the Convention, 4c.

At the conclusion of Col. Bigler's speech to-day, the following resolutions were adopted by the Convention:—

Resolved, That the time has arrived when not only the properties of the people, but the preservation of our blessed Union, require the people, but the preservation of our blessed Union, require the people, but the preservation of our blessed Union, require the people, but the preservation of our blessed Union, require the people, but the preservation of our blessed Union, require the people, but the preservation of the constitution, a cot all about the people of the construction of the constitution, a cot all doubtful powers; a sacred regard for the rights reserved by the sovereign States of which the confederacy is composed, an absolute non-interference, by the people of the enveral States, with the domestic institutions peculiar to each; and a rigid economy in the expenditure of the taxes raised from the people, confising the appropriations of public money, by Congress, to national objects, plainly authorized by the constitution.

Resolved, That had these vital principles of democracy been faitfully observed in the administration of the national of givernment since the advent of the whigh to power, on the North and the South, on the question of democracy between the south, on the question of democracy in the south on the people of the constitution of public money, approaching, in a time of peace, to the war standard of expenditure, and endangering an entail upon our posterity of a fatal incubus of a permanent national debt.

Resolved, That the democratic party of Pennsylvania, ever true to the Union, the constitution and the laws, will fatifully observe and execute, sofar as in them less, all the upon our posterity of a fatal incubus of a permanent national debt.

Resolved, That the democratic party of Pennsylvania, ever frue to the Union, the constitution and the laws, will faithfully observe and execute, sofar as in them lies, all the measures of compromise adopted by the late Congress, for the purpose of settling the questions arising out of domestic slavery; and this not only from a sense of duty as good citizens of the republic, but also from the hind and fraternal feelings which they cherish towards their brethren of the slaveholdflap States.

Resolved, That the sixth section of the act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, passed on the 3d of March, 1847, denying under severe penalties the use of our State juils for the detention of fugitive slaves whilst pawiting their trial, ought to be expunged from our statute book; both because it interpesses obstacles by means of State legislation to the execution of the provisions of the constitution of the United States for the restoration of fugitive slaves, and because it is a right of the control described exclusions of the constitution of the United States of the restoration of fugitive slaves, and because it is a right of the control described exclusions. Resolved That in the matter of laying duties on foreign and is calculated seriously to endanger the existence of the Union.

Resolved. That in the matter of laying duties on foreign imports by the general government, we are in favor of the reciprocal interchange of our products with the other nations of the earth in onnsonance with the enlightened spirit of the sace, recognizing clearly the practice of the government to maintain and preserve in full vigor and safety all the great industrial pursuits of the country.
Resolved, That in Col. Win. Bigier, our candidate for Governor, we recognise a long tried, able, and faithful democrat, in whom there is no guile, and a man who, by his own orreminent merit, has risen to the exalted position which he now holds in the affections and respect of his fellow citices. We hall him as the worthy representative and chosen clandard bearer of our great and glorious principles, and pledge ourselves to do battle for the cause of democracy under the same of the same, until we shall gardieve a signal victory, and redeem the Keystone State from the misrule of its present whig governor.

redeem the Keystone State from the misrule of its present whig governor.

Resolved, That we will cordially support the election of Seth Clover, as Canal Commissioner, believing him to be as bis, honeset, and incorruptible democrat, and well qualified to discharge the duties of that important and highly responsible office.

Previous to adjournment to the 4th of March next the President announced that a mass meeting would be held in the Court House at 8 o'clock, to ratify the proceedings. The names of some of the speakers were announced, and among them Colonel Black, who has the reputation of being a great popular orator.

MASS MEETINGS AT THE COURT HOUSE AND IN THE MARKET SQUARE.

At eight o'clock in the evening, a mass meeting was held at the Court House, to ratify the proceedings of the Convention. The building was crowded to excess. It had been whispered about, for the last two days, that Colonel Fraser would come out in a strong speech at the mass meeting; but he and his friends went home in the morning, and spoiled the fun. Col. Bigler was present, and many of the delegates of the Convention.

Mr. John Laronth, delegate from Bradford county, was appointed President, and addressed the meeting. He said he considered the honer of being appointed Chairman of that meeting, the proudest he had ever received in the course of his life; and he did not think he would exchange it for the laurels heaped, to-day, upon his friend (Col. Bigler) on his right. (Laughter.) It was indeed, an honor to preside over a meeting of the democracy, in the Gibraliar of the State, which gave 4.500 majority to the good man now in his grave on the banks of the Schuytkill. How many will you give Bill Bigler? Will you give him 6.000? (Cries of "Yes.") Well. I will compromise with you for 5.500. (Laughter.) The unanimity with which he has no ordinary man to cope with—bold, fearless, and not very scrupious. (Laughter.) One who knew him when he professed to be a democrat—knew him as well as if he had been within him—told me to-day that he never went straight to any object. Old Berks has promised 6.000. How many will Montgomery give? (Cries of ~1,500.") Fifteen hundred Why, that will make up for all the iron masters and coal masters in Schuytkill. (Laughter.) One man in New York made no secret that he sent seven hundred to yot.

Judge Farender.—It was found upon inquiry that there were 200 vates more to the courter.

special content of the company of th clothes and shows herself in the attitude of resurrection, and redeemed to the world. (Lond cheers.) If she elected Colonel Johnston, there is hot a fibre in the Union that Would not feel as cold as Sir John Franklin. (Laughter.) But this shall not be. You are here to-day bearing the flag of the Union high and lifted up, not a stripe unclean, and every star as bright as when its first beams broke on the country; and when the conflict is over, we shall see it radiant with glory on the Capitol, to give assurance that Penneylvania is true to her first love, and as devoted to the Union as when she signed the sacred covenant that binds the nation together in the bonds of an evertasting confederation.

Col. Black concluded amidst most vehement cheering, when it was announced that there was another meeting beirg held in the open air, and it was then proposed to adjourn to the market square. The motion was adopted. On arriving there, we found a stage erected, lights burning, a tremendous gathering, and Mr. Chesney, Speaker of the House of Representatives, addressing them. He went strongly for the Union, and the compromises of the constitution.

Mr. John W. Forner next addressed the meeting. In the course of his observations, he said the hopes of the whigs were disappointed, who chuckled at the idea of dissension and disunion in the democratic ranks. He spoke of Colonel Bigler in plowing terms, as a man who had worked his way up from a poor boy, till now he was candidate for the highest office in the State. Mr. F. made a Union and compromise speech.

Hon, Gronce R. Barkerr, and Mr. Calmorr, and Mr. Dotterrary also made Union speeches, and the meeting broke up at eleven o clock.

There was another German mass meeting close by, going on at the same time, and a band of music celebrating the victory in prospect; and thus ended the Reading Convention.

BALTIMORE, June 6, 1851.

The New Constitution—Horrible Accident—Penitentiary Troubles—Maryland Institute—Turkish Dresses—The Vacant Archbishoprick, &c. &c.

From present indications, there remains but little doubt that the majority for the new constitution, in the whole State, will exceed ten thousand.

little doubt that the majority for the new constitution, in the whole State, will exceed tenthousand. Thus have the people vindicated their rights, and disregarded the false teachings and predictions of the interested parties who labored so unremittingly to deceive them. The falsehoods and false theories resorted to by the opponents of the constitution, have lessened them in the estimation of the whole community.

A most horrible accident occurred yesterday morning, caused by the explosion of a large iron kettle used in the establishment of Messrs. Kelly & Kanders. The kettle was filled with boiling pitch, and whilst a young man named Joseph Stansbury was replenishing the fire under it, it exploded, throwing the burning fluid over his person, and burning him in the most horrible manner. No hopes are entertained of his recovery.

The appointment by the Governor, of William H. Jenkins, as Warden of the Penitentiary, has caused a rumpus in that establishment, on account of his alleged incompetency to perform the duties of the post. Yesterday, Messrs. William H. Turner and William M. Starr, both sent to the Governor their resignations as directors, in consequence, and it is expected that other members of the board will also resign. Mr. Jenkins, the new Warden, is scarcely known to our citizens, with the exception that he was an unsuccessful applicant to Collector Marriott, for the station of boatman. It would be hard, however, to find a cempetent successor to so able and accomplished an officer as his predecessor, Isaac M. Denson, Esq.

The new hall of the Maryland Institute, in the course of construction, over the Marsh market, being upwards of three hundred feet in length, is progressing rapidly, the windows of the second story being set. It is the intention of the Institute to have it completed in time to hold their annual fair in it, in October next.

The Turkish female dress has been extensively adopted at Norfolk, especially by those ladies who have small and handsome feet and ancles. In this city the ladies still fight shy of it, though the dresses of the children are beginning to assume something of the desired form.

No developements have yet been made as to who will be the successor of Archbishop Eccleston, though the nominations made by the suffragan Bishops have been sent to Rome. The Rev. Dr. Ryder, President of the Georgetown College, is understood to be one of those nominated, and the Rev. Mr. McCoskrey, who was recommended by the deceased Archbishop, another.

Farmers—Cotton to Liverpool ranged at 3-16a 7-32d. Doubleh were charged at 4-2, and 7000 400 000 for 60,000 bunkels were engaged at 4-2, and 700 a 400 00th of fard at 12a 6d per ton. To London 1200 bhis four were engaged at 15-8d, and for beer shield 2a per bible seastfore streamly, at 2a per 200 bhand for beer farm stores were teasily, at 2a per 200 bhand for beer farm stores were teasily at 36d. To California rates were less brick, and the chief amount offering was at rather lower rates on the higher clipper figures.

Furr—All descriptions were comparatively neglected. A parcel of 700 bblas Malaga raisins found buyers at $2.30 a $2.38; and 28 casks currants, at 7-16c.

Har was essentially the same as noticed yesterday. About 500 bales have been disposed of a: 50 a 56c. cash.

Hard—Prime American dew rotted was held firmly at $1.30; and Manila at $11.6 months; but we heard of no transactions worth reporting.

Hinns have been very much depressed the present week and but few purchases have been made, notwithstanding the concession of a half cent by intercombare not exceeded 4.500 Port Cabellos, 22 lbs., at 11c; 2200 Ruenos Ayres, 203; lbs., at 14c; 1400 Maracaibo, at about 103-6; 100 Ctbs. at 9c; 500 Rio Grande, 21; lbs., at 14c; 500 New Orleans, at 10a 103-9c; 4.300 English and Irish shaughter, at 63/c; and 250 dozen Roglish calf skins, 7 a 8 lbs., at 7c.

Inso—The features of the market were the same, while the sales amounted to 200 tons Seotch pig, at $19a $19 50; and 150 Roglish bars, at $16.25; per Min., and have were 1.500 bbls. common Rockland, at 85c; and lump at $1, at which there was a good inquiry making.

Latme—There is more confidence placed upon the future, and the full trade will probably be very extensive. Business in boots and shoce has been rather light, there being no other demand than that from city dealers; but quotations were generally the same. Some of the sound manufacturing houses, feeling the effect of the recent failures in the Galifornia trade, have, with commendation on the balance.

like a 22c.; a few bales Connecticut, at 20c.; and 100 Baracca, at about 19c.

Winns,—A lot of 150 backets champagne sold at $12 a $13.6 months.

Wont—The market still continues flat for this article. Holders are encouraged to be firm by the heavy operations at the West, which are being made at prices rolling that a three of lattices and those of last geason. Manufacture on the other hand, think that the low price of $600ds, and heavy importations from abroad must cause a material decline, and in expectation of such recession they are buying very sparingly. The market in consequence is in a very unsettled and uncertain state.

The aggregate receipts of produce by the North river boats to dusy, were—Ashes, 250 bbls; four, 17,000 do; meat, 65 packages; wheat, 6,000 bbls, rye, 2,000 do; cats, 7,500 do.; corn, 42,500 do.; park, 1,400 pkgs.; beef, 200 do.; cut meats, 590 do.; lard, 117,500; and whiskey, 175 bbls.
